Diversity/Cultural Presentations and Painting Demonstrations

Besides instructional art workshops, Joan Lok conducts diversity presentations that promote the understanding of Eastern culture through arts. She is busiest during the National Cherry Blossom Festival (March/April) with her painting demonstrations, and during the Asian Pacific Heritage Month (May) with her cultural presentations. Her clients include the National Geographic Museum, U. S. Postal Services, Maryland Transportation Authority, and many schools and establishments. Contact Joan to schedule one with your organization.
